

FAIR AT RALEIGH WILL OPEN TO-DAY

Great Preparations Made for North Carolina State Exhibition.

CRAIG TO DELIVER ADDRESS

Governor Will Attend Southern Appalachian Good Roads Convention in Asheville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., October 20.—The thirty-third annual State Fair will be opened Tuesday morning with an address by Governor Craig. The most thorough preparations and considerable enlargement of the fair grounds and equipment, together with the most numerous and important exhibits, give every assurance that this will be by far the greatest fair in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, which has been holding these annual State exhibitions for more than a half century.

Never before has the State Fair had as extensive and complete agricultural exhibits and exhibits of cattle, sheep and swine as are being installed for this fair. The State Department of Agriculture has made special provision for the experts of the department to be on hand, with exhibits from the department and the experiment farms, to "preach the gospel of advanced and intensive farming" to the thousands of people who will attend the fair.

For the first time, the fair will be open at night, the great feature of the evenings being the presentation of sensational fireworks demonstration.

Each day at noon there will be a good roads conference, and demonstration with road machinery that will be attended by great numbers of those interested in road building and maintenance.

On Wednesday night there will be

Don't Neglect Catarrh

or resort to snuff and vapors—they only irritate the delicate membranes.

Modern science proves catarrh a symptom of poor health.

Treat the cause with SCOTT'S EMULSION which contains pure cod liver oil to enrich the blood energize the system, hypophosphites to nourish and up-build the nerves, and glycerine to soothe and heal.

Thousands testify that Scott's Emulsion overcame catarrh in a permanent, natural way and it will surely help you.

ANNUAL SESSION HELD AT YORKTOWN

Historical Society Meets With Large Attendance—Celebration To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Newport News, Va., October 20.—With probably the largest attendance in its history, the Yorktown Historical Society, which includes thousands of members throughout the country, held its annual session to-day at Yorktown.
Though William Jennings Bryan, the speaker of the occasion, will not be present, the society's celebration of the one hundred and thirty-second anniversary of the surrender of Lord Cor-wallis, which will be held to-morrow, will surpass any public commemoration of the event held in a number of years.

Among those who will take part in the program will be Corporal Thomas of Washington; Professor Richard Wilson, of William and Mary College; Rev.
George Washington Drake, of Richmond; Senators Thomas S. Martin and Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia; Dr.
Henry Morris and Major Henry Reed of Hatfield, of Philadelphia; Colonel Wald T. H. H. of London, and Comte De Chambrun, French legation, Washington.

There is a movement on foot to arrange another day for a hearing in Charlotte on the vexing question of the location of the proposed union passenger station. Just when the hearing will be has not yet been decided, but it is understood that it will be just as early as possible, as all parties are anxious to lay to rest the perplexing and mooted question. Judge Peck, of the Corporation Commission, is summoned to Ashe County Court next week as a witness in a case.

Governor Craig granted a pardon today to Jake Wills, who has served since 1906 on a ten-years' sentence to the penitentiary for housebreaking, with felonies later in Wake County.
The pardon is for the reason that the prisoner was only eighteen years old when he committed the crime, and he has served very nearly all the sentence.

There is also a pardon for Gely Leach, a negro, who has served nearly all of a one-year sentence for larceny in this county. The pardon was procured by Rev. C. W. Clements, of Cary, and is granted because of the good prison record of the prisoner, and because, if he had the credit for time off that the law now entitles prisoners to, his term of service would be expired.

WOMEN ACCUSED OF MURDER

Two in Jail at Spotsylvania.
Confederate Veteran Is Burned to Death.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Spotsylvania, Va., October 20.— Bloodhounds were taken through here this morning by King George County to be used in the effort to run down what is supposed to be a fugitive in King George County, James Bass, a respected and industrious colored man in that county, recently built himself a nice home and a number of good houses on his farm. Friday night some one set fire to his residence, which was very near his residence.
The residence, however, was not damaged. He kept on the lookout, but did not discover the miscreant. On Saturday night another house, which discovered to be on fire, and investigation showed that coal oil had been used. Bass then went to the county authorities and asked for protection.
Commonwealth's Attorney W. A. Rose phoned to the State farm and asked for bloodhounds, and they were sent to the scene of the trouble to-day.

Etta Brown and Clara Holmes, two colored women, are in jail at Spotsyvania Courthouse accused of the murder of another colored woman, Rebecca Holmes, last Thursday night, near Summit, in Spotsylvania County. The coroner's inquest brought in a verdict that Rebecca Holmes came to her death by stab wounds inflicted with a knife, by Etta Brown and Clara Holmes. The case will be investigated by the grand jury, and the trial probably come off at the December term of the Circuit Court of Spotsyvania County. Frederick W. Coleman and Alvin T. Embrey, of this city, have already been engaged as counsel for the two women, who will be prosecuted by Commonwealth's Attorney R.
E. Waller, of Spotsylvania County, assisted by Commonwealth's Attorney W.
B. Butner, of Fredericksburg.

The residence of Edgar Jackson Faulconer, a well-known citizen of Orange County, was burned a few nights ago, and Mr. Faulconer, who was in the house alone at the time, was burned to death in his bed. He was seventy-eight years old and a Confederate veteran. He is survived by his wife and eight children.

Before Mayor Foster, of this city, was charged with passing a worthless check on County Treasurer O.
M. Watson, of Orange County. Mr.
Faulconer was charged with passing a check for $50 and costs. He took an appel, and was bonded in the sum of $250.

Zion Baptist Church, in Orange County, will celebrate its centennial on Thursday, October 20, and a large sermon of the occasion will be preached by Rev. J. B. Cooke, of Gordonsville.
